SECTT. 28 OCT

Subject —

I have the honor to state that Mr. P.K. Nanjundiah Toll contractor of Madhugiri for the year 1932-33 submitted - petitions to the President, Municipal Council, Madhugiri praying that two months khist may be remitted as he suffered great loss owing to the stoppage of several buses during the year and also the bus strike. The Municipal Council thereupon resolved to give remission to the extent of a months khist i.e.Rs. 380/- to the - contractor, The President states that the khist has already been collected and credited to the Municipal Revenues and the amount has to be refunded after sanction to the remission is obtained. He adds that the amount of refund will be met from the current year's - closing balance. In the circumstances, I request that sanction of Government may kindly be obtained to the resolution of the council.

The copy of the resolution accompanies.

I have the honor to be,
sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Offg. Deputy Commissioner,
